

Contents

Contents...

Preface to the Third Edition	vii
How to Use Invitation	ix
List of Abbreviations	xi
1. The Human Longing for God	1
Our most basic desire is for God, who loves us and is always drawing us to him. We find signs of God’s loving care in the world, especially in the saving work of his Son, Jesus Christ.
2. The Creation	5
God created the world and all that is in it, and created human beings in his own image. God reveals himself to us through Scripture and tradition, and gives us the gift of his love and life for us, which is called grace.
3. The Church as Community	9
The Church is a community of love, formed by God to acknowledge him and serve him. Our families are also communities of faith. Despite divisions among the religions, Christians should work toward unity in Jesus.
4. God’s Initiative in Human History	13
Scripture tells the story of God calling human beings to intimacy, beginning with Abraham. We respond in faith to this love in covenant, by worship and moral behavior.
5. The Unique Word of Holy Scripture	17
God speaks to us through Scripture, which began as a spoken word before it was written. The Old Testament is the series of books held sacred by the Hebrew people; the New Testament contains the books of the people of the Christian covenant. People today can find meaning and inspiration in the Bible, yet they should take care to interpret it in light of the tradition of the Church.
6. The Stages of the Promise	21
God works in history to lead his people to salvation. From Abraham to the Israelites’ freedom through the Exodus, from Israel’s kings and prophets to the Babylonian Exile, God prepared the way for the coming of Jesus, the Messiah.

7. The Word Became Flesh	25
---------------------------------------	-----------

All of God’s promises to Israel are fulfilled in Jesus, whose birth is told in the Gospels of Matthew, Luke, and John. He is true God and true man.

8. Mysteries of Christ’s Public Life	29
---	-----------

Jesus preached the forgiveness of sins and the coming of the kingdom of God. His teachings, such as the Beatitudes and the Sermon on the Mount, outline the attitudes we need to have to be open to salvation and the ideals for Christian behavior.

9. The Paschal Mystery	33
-------------------------------------	-----------

This mystery is Jesus’ dying and rising for the redemption of the world. We celebrate it in the liturgies for Holy Thursday, Good Friday, and the Easter Vigil. It is the central truth of our faith.

10. Come, Holy Spirit	37
------------------------------------	-----------

Jesus sent the Holy Spirit to us to give us special gifts, which we are to use to build up the Church. Love is the greatest gift of the Spirit. The Spirit working in the Church moves it to evangelization, catechesis, and missionary activity.

11. I Believe in the Holy Catholic Church	41
--	-----------

The Church is called into existence by the Father, Son, and Spirit. It is seen as the People of God and the Body of Christ. Jesus chose Peter to lead the apostles and the Church. The pope is Peter’s successor.

12. The Celebration of the Christian Mysteries	45
---	-----------

The Church’s seven sacraments—baptism, confirmation, Eucharist, reconciliation, anointing of the sick, holy orders, and marriage—are signs of God’s grace to us. They help us on our faith journey.

13. The Sacraments of Initiation	49
Baptism frees us from sin, makes us new creations through water and the Holy Spirit, and incorporates us into the Church. Confirmation is a reconfirmation of our baptismal promises, wherein we are sealed with the Holy Spirit.
14. The Bread of Life	53
This is the Eucharist, source of Christian life. It re-enacts Jesus' last supper and is the memorial of his passion and resurrection. When we take part in the Eucharistic celebration, we share in his sacrifice.
15. Forgive Me, Father	57
The sacrament of reconciliation reconciles us with God and the Church when we have broken our relationships with them by sin. By confessing our sins to a priest, we can receive God's forgiveness, healing, and love.
16. Are Any Among You Sick?	61
The sacrament of anointing of the sick brings comfort, and helps in physical, mental, and spiritual healing. It is for anyone who is ill.
17. What God Has Joined Together	65
Jesus established the sacrament of marriage, which is a permanent union that reflects God's intense love for us. Sex outside marriage is wrong, because sex is meant to be a sign of the loving commitment of husband and wife, as well as for the procreation and nurturing of children.
18. Holy Orders	69
Jesus is the source for the entire priesthood, the one eternal mediator between God and human beings. Through the sacrament of holy orders, bishops, priests, and deacons share in the ministerial priesthood of Jesus.
19. The Vocation of the Laity	73
The sacrament of baptism introduces all people into the common priesthood. Laity are called to work together with ordained persons to build the Body of Christ through evangelization, liturgical celebrations, and services of love, charity, and mercy.
20. Social Justice	77
Catholic social teaching affirms the sacredness and dignity of the human person, and points to the need to evaluate how well social structures minister to the individual and common good.
21. May They All Be One	81
Vatican II called the Catholic Church to enter into dialogue with all Christian denominations, in order to recover the unity proclaimed by Jesus Christ. The Church also encourages dialogue and cooperation with members of non-Christian religions.
22. Holy Mary, Mother of God, Pray for Us	85
Mary is a model for all Christian believers, and a powerful intercessor with God for our needs. The saints are those men and women already in heaven. They inspire us to practice Christian virtues and inspire love of God, neighbor, and self. They also pray for us to the Lord.
23. A Faith Journey Through the Liturgical Year	89
The liturgical year is the Church's annual reliving of the life, death, and resurrection of Jesus in a prayerful and meditative manner. The central event of the year is the Sacred Triduum—Holy Thursday, Good Friday, and the Easter Vigil.
24. Death Shall Have No Dominion	93
Jesus' death and resurrection have won eternal life for us. His saving action can inspire us and redeem us from our fears and anxieties about death.
25. I Believe... We Believe in God	97
Faith is an act of trust and hope, a positive spiritual attitude toward life and God. It is also a commitment to Christ and to living a life serving him. Jesus desires this faith commitment from us.
26. Praise the Lord	101
Prayer is the experience of meeting God. It may be formal prayer or silent contemplation. Yet it is more than thinking or feeling: it is truly relating to the living God.
Appendix	105
1. Familiar Prayers for Catholics.....105
2. Liturgical Celebrations and Sacraments.....108
3. Additional Beliefs: Virtues, the Work of the Spirit, and Capital Sins		109
4. Living the Christian Life: Faithfulness on Our Daily Walk.....		110
5. Becoming a Catholic.....		111
6. Continuing Your Faith Journey		112
Index to Questions and Answers	113	